Main Topics

- Microwave systems and components,
- Apparatuses for microwave thermal processes,
- Solution of EM-thermal coupled problems,
- Multiband/wideband antennas,
- Modeling of devices with ferrite materials
- Reconstruction of material parameters,
- Numerical microwave optimization

Short Course

The seminar will be preceded by the Short Course for the participants who are new in modeling or wish to extend their expertise in the advanced or specific subjects. The contents/format of the course will be determined in February 2007 in accordance with the number of registrants and their demand. Maximum number of the Course attendees is limited to 20; therefore, the soonest registration is recommended.

Paper Submission

The summaries of the seminar contributions will be printed in the Seminar brochure. The authors should submit their summaries (not exceeding 4 Letter (A4) pages) including (a) the title, (b) author name(s) and affiliations, address, e-mail, and (c) an abstract (less than 75 words). Use Times New Roman 10-point font, single space, top and bottom margin of 1" (2.5 cm), left and right margins of 1.25" (3.0 cm). Reproduction of color graphics would be possible, but require special arrangements (contact the Seminar Chair for details).

For inclusion in the seminar program, titles and abstracts of the summaries should be submitted before February 15, 2007 via the web page:
